The Pascagoula district led the 16 areas of the state in increase in October business activity over the same month last year.

The local gain was 31% as determined by the Business Research Station at Mississippi State College.

Pascagoula's area includes Ocean Springs, Moss Point, Lucedale and Pascagoula.

For the state as a whole, the station reported an October gain of 10%. Upward pressure was exerted by bank debits, money order sales, postal receipts, life insurance sales and sales tax collections.

On Oct. 31, the station's index stood at 348% of the 1939-1940 average.

Other percentage increases in the state were Biloxi, 28; Vicksburg, 18; Corinth, 18; Columbus, 18; Tupelo, 17; McComb, 17; Natchez, 11; Memphis, 10.

Jackson, 8; Laurel, 7; Greenwood, 6; Meridian, 5; Greenville, 4; Hattiesburg, 1.

Clarksdale, with a 1% drop, was the only area showing a decline.

Pascagoula Host To Coast Council Wednesday Night

Pascagoula was host to the Mississippi Coast Council at its bi-monthly meeting Wednesday at Evangeline restaurant with approximately 40 persons from four Coast counties attending.

The Pascagoula-Moss Point Chamber of Commerce acted as host for the meeting.

In addition to members of the council, legislators representing six Coast counties attended and took part in a general discussion of state and Coast problems which will face the state legislature convening next month.

Hermes F. Gautier, newly elected state senator from Jackson county, acted as master of ceremonies in introducing the legislators.

They included Reese O. Bickerstaff, Gulfport; Boyce Holliman, Wiggins; J. Guy Krebs, Pascagoula; Floyd G. Fountain, St. Martin; and Walter D. Phillips, Bay St. Louis.

The group heard a financial report on the recent Colmer-Stennis day at Gulfport which showed receipts of $4,365.10 and expenditures of $4,392.96.

Entrees for the dinner were fresh tuna steaks broiled in butter and lemon, brought to Pascagoula last week by the Gulf Star, the first cargo of fresh tuna ever unloaded at a Gulf port.

25,000 population was presented by Capt. A. S. Windham of the state highway patrol.

The other was awarded by the National Safety Council for the city's record of no traffic deaths during 1950.

Second To Bismark, N. D.

In the contest sponsored by the American Automobile Association Pascagoula was second with a mark of 83% to Bismark, N. D., which scored 88.

Special commendation was made for handling of school traffic, erection of stop signs and marking pedestrian crossings. Accepting the plaques were mayor Wilbur Dees, police chief R. E. Jones and works commissioner H. C. Ezell.

Six Classmates To Meet Actors

Today will be a red letter day for six high school girls and boys who will be members of the official reception committee to welcome six well known movie stars, writers and producers.

The visitors will be on a 30-minute visit to Pascagoula and Moss Point in celebration of the golden jubilee of the motion picture industry.

The students, chosen by popular ballot in their schools, are Gene Wood and Judy Almond, seniors at Moss Point high; George Clark and Carolyn Byrd, members of the 12th and 11th grades, Pascagoula high and Eddie Barton and Gracie Stiglets, seniors at OLV.

The visitors will be officially greeted and presented keys to Pascagoula and Moss Point by mayors Wilbur Dees and Alton Thomson in front of the county courthouse at 4 p. m.

In the event of bad weather the ceremonies will take place inside the courthouse.

J. O. Cole heads the local arrangement committee.

Each of the high school girls will receive a corsage from one of the actors.

Movie personnel in the visiting group will be Robert Stack, Bruce Bennett, Charlton Heston, Lydia Clark, actors, Irving Asher, producer, and Dorothy Hughes, writer.

Washington Visit
By Alton Thomson

Bonham

Mayor Alton L. Thomson of Moss Point left Wednesday for Washington to seek federal aid for a proposed citywide sewage system and additional water wells.

The proposed sewage plans are to be enlarged to include the Perkins sub-division, the Dantler sub-division and Griffin Heights, Thomson said.

At a meeting of the mayor and board of aldermen Tuesday, a bid was awarded the Insuccidal Foggings Company of Jackson for purchase of a fogging machine for $1680.

The machine will be put into operation in the spring in a city-operated city-wide pest control program.

The mayor and aldermen voted to accept the bid of Grate Motor Company for purchase of a new car for the police department.

The board also voted to ask bids on repainting the interior of the city hall.
